FOUR INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

The Inquisitors Deliberate and True Bills Are Returned.

Four indictments were returned by the grand jury yesterday and ordered placed upon the secret file. The jurors were in session during the morning and a number of cases were presented to their consideration by the Attorney General's office. One of the men against whom a true bill is believed to have been found is John Lua, who has been suspected of participation in several burglaries of recent occurrence. The witnesses summoned in connection with the Lua case were Chief of Detectives Kalakiela, Mrs. Walter Jarrett and a Japanese.

Another burglary suspect was a Chinese who was accused of having entered a saloon and made use of his opportunity by making off with property belonging to the proprietor.

Little for Cathcart.

City and County Attorney Cathcart gained little by his demurrer to the amended complaint filed against him by H. G. Middleditch, the trustee in bankruptcy of the Charles F. Herrick Carriage Company. An order and judgment signed yesterday by Judge De Bolt sustains the demurrer only on the ground of the omission of the name of the court where Middleditch previously secured a judgment against Cathcart and gives permission to repair the omission in another complaint.

Must Incorporate.

The Supreme Court of the Territory has taken the view that the Pearl Harbor Traction Company will have to file articles of association and that it cannot become a legal body through the granting of a charter. The decision was rendered yesterday, written by Judge Ballou, and goes at length into the legal aspect of the question.

The case, as summarized by Justice Ballou in his decision, is as follows: "This is a submission on an agreed statement of facts from which it appears that the plaintiffs having taken preliminary steps for organizing an association to be known as the Pearl Harbor Traction Company made application to the defendant for a charter of incorporation authorizing the carrying on of a railway and other businesses under R. L. Sec. 2542. The defendant, with the consent of the governor, refused to grant the charter on the grounds that an association for constructing and operating a railway could not be chartered under R. L. Sec. 2542, but in order to incorporate must file articles of association as prescribed by R. L. Sec. 2535, and upon the further ground that in any event the enumeration in the proposed charter of purposes included in R. L. Sec. 2535 brought the company under the provisions of that section."

In the decision it is held that the Treasurer with the consent of the Governor does not possess the legal authority to grant a charter to a railway company and that the provision of Section 2535 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii cover, in a sufficient way, the organization of a railway company by articles of association.

A Tax Question.

The question as to whether or not, under the 1905 amendment, taxes of that year can be considered a lien on mortgaged property is involved in the foreclosure suit of August Dreier, Ltd., against W. W. Aahana. A final decree was entered in the case yesterday by Judge Robinson but $212.65, taxes for the year in question, is ordered to be deposited with the Judiciary department clerk until the Supreme Court can render a decision in the matter.

Murder Trial On.

There was no delay in securing a jury to try George Kaleikini, charged with the murder of his wife, in Judge De Bolt's department of the Circuit court yesterday. Twelve men were passed before noon and the prosecution had placed several witnesses upon the stand when adjournment for the day was taken at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Sheriff Jarrett was the first witness placed upon the stand by Attorney Cathcart and he testified to finding the body of Mrs. Kaleikini in the yard of the house in Kalihi where the tragedy occurred last August. Sheriff Jarrett also identified the bullet that was introduced in evidence by the prosecution as the one that had been removed from the body of the murdered woman by Dr. McDonald, the physician who performed the autopsy. Attorney Achi, who is defending Kaleikini, questioned the positive identification of the bullet by Jarrett, but the Sheriff was quite sure that it was the same one that he received from Dr. McDonald.

Dr. McDonald testified as to the causes of the woman's death, as indicated by his autopsy and also identified the bullet that he found in the body. He declared that the bullet had penetrated the heart and that death must have followed within a few seconds.

During the recital of the details of the tragedy Kaleikini did not betray any signs of emotion or nervousness but watched each witness closely. The trial will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock.

The jurors in the case are F. P. Friel, H. Kalamoku, J. H. Cummings, Robert Hair, Thomas C. McGuire, E. V. Todd, W. Turrill, W. Starbird, Charles Simpson, G. H. Green, E. O. White, S. A. Kamakau.

Will is Probated.

An order admitting the will of Kamahele Lazarus to probate was signed yesterday by Judge Robinson, the letters testamentary to be granted to Henry Smith as soon as a bond of $1000 is approved by the court. The will was contested by heirs on the ground that Mrs. Lazarus was not competent to make a last testament at the time she signed the instrument. This view was not taken by the court.

Petition for Letters.

A petition for letters of administration in the estate of Maria J. Forbes of Honolulu was filed yesterday. The petitioner, W. J. Forbes, a son, declares that his mother died without leaving a will and the estate is valued at about $19,200, the indebtedness amounting to $10,846. The value of Honolulu real estate is fixed at $15,700 and corporation stocks and personal property at $3500. The heirs named in the petition are Maria R. Forbes, W. J. Forbes and Harriet J. Forbes, all residents of Honolulu. The date for hearing the petition has been set for March 1st.

Another application for a petition for probate was filed by the attorney for Frank C. Barwick who asks for letters of administration on the estate of his wife, Elizabeth C. Barwick, who left property valued at $2118.05. Barwick is named as the sole legatee and executor but he has waived his rights in favor of the Hawaiian Trust Company which will administer the estate.

Probate Dias Will

The will of Pedro Augusto Dias was admitted to probate yesterday. This action on the last testament of the Waipahu merchant was taken on the showing made in the report of the Commissioner, the U. S. Consul at Schoeneck, Switzerland, who examined a physician who attended Dias before the latter's suicide and established the identity beyond all reasonable doubt. The will was made by Dias on October 16, 1906, the witnesses being Harry Armitage, George J. O'Neil and William Savidge. Julia Dias and J. P. Dias are named as executrix and executor respectively. The court has ordered that a bond of $2100 be filed.

Queen Emma Estate.

An order approving the annual accounts of Bruce Cartwright, trustee in the estate of Queen Emma Kahaleonali, was signed by Judge Robinson yesterday. John Marcellino, master, passed upon the interest and principal accounts.

An annual accounting in the estate of the Levey minors was filed by the guardian, M. Brash, yesterday. The figures show disbursements of $989.58 and receipts of $1637.50.

NEUROTIC JELLY.

Delinicator:—"Cyril," said his mothering luncheon with his mother. Presently she noticed that he was eating his jelly with his spoon.

"Wilbur, dear," she said to him. "you must not eat your jelly with your spoon."

"I have to, mother," he replied.

"No, dear, you don't have to. Put your jelly on your bread."

"I did put it on my bread, mother," said Wilbur, "but it wouldn't stay there; it is too nervous."
